The luxurious Chalet in Courchevel 1850 with 12 sleeps not only benefits from a superb location right by the Bellecote piste but also a wealth of facilities that you would expect from any high-class chalet.

Boasting a traditional alpine exterior the chalets reclaimed timber and natural stone blend perfectly with the surrounding snow covered pine trees. This quintessential alpine charm continues once you step through the chalet front door where the ancient timbers, open fireplaces and thoughtful soft furnishings create a cosy, relaxing atmosphere.

Chalet's fantastic position means you can be on the slopes in seconds and will be down in the centre at La Croisette before you know it! Once you return to the chalet from an exciting ski day, you'll have everything on hand to provide the ultimate in après-ski relaxation. Whether you prefer to put your feet up by an open fire with a glass of wine or unwind in a bubbling Jacuzzi there's plenty to choose from at the chalet. Other excellent facilities include a TV snug with home cinema, making it a perfect chalet option for families.

The five ensuite bedrooms provide ample accommodation for 10 + 2 guests; one of the bedrooms features trundle beds making an ideal family or kids room. The feeling of space continues into the exquisite open plan living and dining area, arranged over split-levels the room is finished with a roaring fireplace, deep sofas and a large dining table. This area is the real heart of the chalet where guests can enjoy delicious afternoon tea, pre-dinner cocktails and canapés and then sit down to enjoy an exquisite four course evening meal prepared by our experienced and professional chefs.
